Dear Walter:

I couldn't have been more impressed, I couldn't have been more delighted, I couldn't have been prouder at the magnificent spectacle which was unfurled the other night.

Stadiums as a rule have a cold, forbidding and impersonal quality about them, but in this instance it reflects every bit of devotion and care that dreams are made of. It's an inspiring stadium in extremely good taste and one has the feeling that the public's comfort and pleasure were the foremost considerations in constructing the permanent home for the Dodgers.

I think, under trying circumstances - what with the pressure of time, etc - the entire staff acquitted itself nobly. My heartiest congratulations to you and all those who made the Dodgers' Stadium possible. It's great for baseball, it's great for Los Angeles, it's great for the thousands of fans who fervently hope the pennant flag will be flying over Dodger Stadium in its first year.

Again my heartiest congratulations and warm personal regards.

Mr. Walter O'Malley
Dodgers Stadium
Los Angeles, Calif.
