Dear Sir:

[Faded, illegible text]

Of course, the success of assembling such a parcel, would have to be done with utmost discretion and secrecy and the party intrusted with such a responsibility should possess the qualities to bring such a venture to successful conclusion. I have had many years experience in assembling parcels, and have done such work for a great many builders. I could accomplish such an undertaking.

Your thoughts on this subject are solicited.

Very truly yours,

Charles Vanacore
