Dear Walter:

Thanks for your letter of April 11th. I am sure George Spargo will be most happy to go to the game. Unfortunately I now find that I can't attend because of a housing inspection which I can't avoid and which involves some controversial questions of moving tenants, demolition, etc. If you have a couple of extra seats, I could use them for Dick Olds and for my small grandson Johnnie Olds.

As to the St. Paul and Milwaukee stadiums, I have some slight acquaintance with them. It seems to me that the parking problem in Milwaukee has no analogy here in New York. There just isn't that much carriage trade here and land is so expensive that parking would have to be on several levels.

Cordially,

Co-Ordinator
